

JCS

We want to thank our families and friends for the love and support they have always provided. So much time, effort, and love has gone into making our wedding such a wonderful, festive event, and we are so thankful. We are honored to have everyone here to celebrate this day with us. We want to thank our parents and grandparents for the examples of love and friendship that they have shown us. We know this day would not be possible without our family and friends, whom we love so much. Thank you.

About The Wedding Party

The Groomsmen

Adam Eastenir: Adam is my only brother and, although he is younger than me, I look up to him in so many ways. Adam has been a real brother in the truest sense of the word. We grew up running and playing together; we could always find something mischievous to get into. Now, although we have both moved to different cities, we still remain close. I'm honored to have him as a part of my wedding and that he agreed to be my best man.

Dennis Eastenir: I am blessed to have one of the greatest men I have ever known to be my father. My dad is an amazing example to my brother and me of what a father and a husband should be. My dad is a rock in my life, always supporting me. There is no doubt in my mind that I would not be where I am today without the love, support, and prayers of my parents. I am so blessed to have a dad that loves me and cares for me the way my father does!

David Cole: David and I became friends when I started as youth minister in Lebanon. David and his wife, Lee Ann, were always so friendly, treating me like family. We had great adventures working with the youth together and made so many memories that will never be forgotten. While David served as a partner in ministry, he was also acting as a mentor and leader in my life. I will be forever grateful for his help, his guidance, and most of all, his friendship.

Dan Pound: Dan came into my life as a sophomore at Campbellsville University as a teammate on the soccer team. Dan was one of the funniest guys I had ever met and he made the soccer trips fun and exciting. He also lived right down the hall from me in the dorm. We had a lot of fun times together, experienced some good laughs, and made memories we will never forget. Now we work together in youth ministry and have formed a friendship that will last a lifetime.

The Pastor

Darrell Lyons: Darrell is much more than just the minister overseeing the service, he is one of my closest friends. As a freshman in college, I became the youth minister at Lebanon Methodist Church, where Darrell was pastoring. We quickly became very close. We did visitations together, ate Mexican, worked on church stuff, ate Mexican, went to conferences, and ate Mexican. In the nearly five years we worked together, we experienced more adventures than most experience in a lifetime. It is a great honor to have such a special person in my life to be the one who performs my wedding ceremony.

About The Wedding Party

The Bridesmaids

Cara Nicklies: Cara is my younger sister who I had the privilege of sharing a room with. Although there were many times of confrontation, the friendship we developed is priceless. We exchanged secrets, protected one another from the monsters in the closet, and swapped boy stories until our hearts could bear no more. The memories that we shared will never be forgotten and I look forward to all the ones yet to come.

Paige Hamby: Paige is my youngest sister and it has been a great joy to watch her grow into the woman she is today. I have great memories of us playing house and barbies together; we always had so much fun! In the last few years, we have become much closer and our relationship has changed from being just playmates to being true sisters. I am so thankful to have a sister and a friend like Paige.

Allison Summers: Allison was my first and only roommate in college. She is an amazing Christian woman who God has used to add wisdom and direction to my and Jason's life. I have many fond memories of the three of us in the front seat of my old Buick singing the Three's Company theme song. Allison is a true friend and there is no doubt that she will always be a special part of our lives.

Holly Sharp: I met Holly my first year of college and she quickly became one of my best friends. Jason and I both love her laughter and wonderful sense of humor. Holly has the ability to light up a room with her fun loving spirit. I will never forget the times we spent in the dorm telling jokes and eating chocolate rice cakes. Holly is a very special person and a very special friend.

The Flower Girl

Olivia Lee: We met Olivia when Jason was a youth minister at Lebanon United Methodist Church. She was such a sweet girl and had a sense of humor that always kept us laughing. She developed quite a crush on Jason, she even cried when we told her that he was getting married. We are so glad that Olivia agreed to be a part of our wedding. She is a remarkable young lady who holds a very special place in our hearts.

The Ring Bearer

Dawson Cole: Dawson is David and Lee Ann's oldest son and he is such a beautiful child! I remember the first time we met him, he was just a little more than a day old and he was absolutely adorable. Since then we have gotten to know him so well and love him more and more everyday. We told David and Lee Ann ever since Dawson was born that we wanted him to be in our wedding. We are so glad that, now that that day has come, he is a part of this special day.
